CHILDREN'S CRUSADE AGAINST COMMUNISM

47. War-Maker

Mao Tse-tung is the leader of the Chinese Reds who attacked the United Nations forces in Korea. His army was built up, in the first place, with the help of outlaws. Later the Russian Reds supplied him with arms and advisers. He captured the China mainland in three years of savage warfare against the Nationalist government. Mao delights in war. History, he says, "is written in blood and iron." The free world must find a way to keep war-makers like Mao Tse-tung from shedding the blood of innocent people.

"Le Péril jaune". Dessin inspiré par une esquisse de Guillaume II, exemplaire dédié et signé par l'empereur. L'archange saint Michel invite les nations chrétiennes à s'unir contre l'orage chinois que domine assez curieusement le Bouddha.
